

REMARKS

Summary

Claims 4, 10, and 18 are currently amended.

Claims 1 – 25 are presently pending.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1 – 25 are allowed. Since this application is in condition for allowance except for formal matters, prosecution as to the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

Drawings

The drawings were objected to pursuant to 37 C.F.R. § 1.83(a). The Examiner stated "[t]he drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims" (Office communication dated December 8, 2006). Specifically, the Examiner indicated that the "a power source" (claims 4, 10, and 18) and "a PCB" (claims 5, 11, and 19) are missing from the drawings. Applicants respectfully submit that "a PCB," which is referred to as a PCB substrate 113 in the original specification, see page 18 and paragraph [0063], is shown in Figure 8 as originally filed. In order to expedite prosecution, Applicants have amended claims 4, 10, and 18 to obviate the objections set forth by the Examiner. Accordingly, the drawings are in condition for allowance.

Specification

The Applicants have amended the Specification as generally suggested by the Examiner in the Office action dated December 8, 2006. Accordingly, the Specification is in condition for allowance.

Claim Rejections – 35 U.S.C. § 112

Claims 7 – 14 were rejected pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. As generally suggested by the Examiner, "the first high-voltage part" recited in lines 2 – 3 of claim 7 was amended to recite "the high-voltage part." Accordingly, claim 7 is in condition for allowance. Dependent claims 8 - 4 depend from allowable claim 7, so are allowable for at least this reason.

CONCLUSION

For at least the reasons presented above, the Applicant respectfully submits that the pending claims are in condition for allowance.

The Examiner is respectfully requested to contact the undersigned in the event that a telephone interview would expedite consideration of the application.

Respectfully submitted,
